SEN. WHEELER
LOSES OUT IN
PRIMARY RACEBACKING OF TRUMAN
FAILS TO ELECT
MONTANA BOSS

BY D. HAROLD OLIVER
Associated Press Political Reporter

Although trailing in popular vote, red-suspended Eugene Talmadge claimed victory last (Wednesday) night in his bid for a fourth term as governor of Georgia in a primary election which broke all voting records for that state.

Talmadge led in 83 of Georgia's 159 counties. Under the Georgia electoral system—something like the national electoral college—that gave him an indicated 206 unit or electoral votes, enough to win if he held his margin.

James V. Carmichael, 36-year-old protégé of the present governor, Ellis Arnall, had 84,741 popular votes to only 72,534 for Talmadge, but he led in only 40 counties with 122 unit votes.

The bitter Talmadge-Carmichael fight, waged in part on the "white supremacy" issue, plus the fact that negroes—an estimated 100,000 of them—voted for the first time in a Georgia primary had shifted the nation's political spotlight to Georgia from Montana where Sen. Burton K. Wheeler conceded defeat in Tuesday's primary.

Promises White Primary

Another former Georgia governor, E. D. Rivers, and Hoke O'Kelley, veteran of two world wars, were running far behind Talmadge and Rivers in the four-man Democratic gubernatorial race. Democratic nomination is tantamount to election in Georgia.

On the basis of the early returns, Talmadge went on the radio and told his listeners the contest was "all over but the shouting." He had promised, if elected, to restore the state's "white primary" from which negroes were barred.

It was the United States supreme court which had ruled out the "white primary" early this year, thus paving the way for Georgia negroes to vote for the first time yesterday.

Wheeler, a veteran of 24 years in the Senate and a consistent opponent of the administration's foreign policies before and during the war, conceded today that he had lost his bid for a fifth term to 40-year-old Leif Erickson, former Montana supreme court justice.

Erickson who campaigned on an internationalist platform, had a lead of about 5,500 votes over Wheeler with only about 250 precincts missing.

Supported By "Pinks"

During the campaign Erickson called Wheeler one of America's "leading isolationists." Wheeler said Erickson had the support of "New York Pinks."

Erickson ran with the support of the CIO-PAC Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, James Roosevelt, son of the late president, and Senator Murray, Wheeler's Democratic colleague. Wheeler was given a hand by President Truman, who defended the Senator's voting record on railroad labor, and by John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers.

Wheeler, who broke with President Roosevelt over the U. S. supreme court reorganization and war issues, issued a statement saying:

"Probably I have lost many

BUYERS BATTLE HIGH PRICES—Representatives of veteran, labor and civic organizations, bearing signs protesting removal of price controls and resulting increases in prices, "picket" downtown Washington, D. Feelings Are Tense
As House 'Dawdles'
With OPA Revival

Washington, July 17. (P)—A senate-house conference on the OPA bill virtually marked time today and senate Democratic leader Barkley (Ky.) reported action unlikely before Friday on modifications of the "minimum" price ceiling.

Asked whether the delay on pressing to a vote on the provisions of the OPA bill is intentional, Barkley declared that "there is no significance" to it.

The provisions of the measure were discussed in general terms at today's meeting.

The house conferees took a stand against the specific ceiling exemptions which the senate voted but Senator Tobey (R-N.H.) accused them of "dawdling" and said that "all they want to do is talk."

"Feelings are tense," he told reporters. "The time has come to fish or cut bait."

Indications were that there was only general discussion of the bill's provisions. Rep. Spence (D-Ky.), head of the house conferees, declared that "We will make a move when the time comes. Nobody can put the chips down faster than we can."

The session finally broke up when senators were called to the floor for a vote on another matter.

Meanwhile there was a fresh indication of Mr. Truman's displeasure with the measure as it stands.

The White House released a report of a five-hour reconversion advisory board calling for a bill which would renew price controls for a year while "simplifying present procedures and liberalizing existing standards." A White House statement releasing the report added:

BRITISH BAKERS
FIGHT RATIONINGTradesmen Will Go To Jail Rather Than
Clip Coupons

BY TOM WILLIAMS

London, July 17. (P)—Shouting, red-faced representatives of nearly half of Britain's bakers refused point blank today to accept bread rationing, thus giving the Labor Government by far the greatest challenge to its authority in 12 months of office.

Backed by 200,000 retailers, the bakers were defiant of a threat of imprisonment.

Declaring they would go to jail rather than do the extra coupon clipping and book work entailed in rationing, 1,500 delegates attending a stormy meeting of the National Association of Master Bakers hooted down all suggestions that they modify their outspokenly rebellious stand.

With the rationing scheme slated to begin next Sunday and with Winston Churchill's Conservatives ready to assail it in a House of Commons debate tomorrow, the government pinned its hopes for an orderly settlement of the dispute on a last-minute conference between bakers and Food Minister John Strachey in the morning.

The meeting unanimously adopted a resolution calling the rationing scheme "impossible to work in its present form" and announcing that bakers "will continue to supply bread and confectionary as heretofore without bread units and with the hope that a simplified scheme will be introduced."

Houghton Speaker
Backs Baruch Plan
For Atom Control

Houghton, Mich., July 17. (P)—Support of the Baruch plan for the control of the military uses of atomic energy was urged in an address here today before the Michigan College of Mining and Technology branch of the American Society for Engineering Education by Dr. Manson Benedict, a scientist.

"For selfish reasons if no other the atomic bomb must be outlawed. Or at the least its use held to the minimum," he said. "This is essential to the survival of civilization as we know it."

Dr. Benedict, who played an important part in research leading to the release of atomic energy further pointed out that international control of the military uses of atomic energy would permit the development of valuable peace-time uses.

SOLO LINKED

IN $3,000 DEAL

Washington, July 17. (P)—Senate investigators heard testimony today that Rep. May (D-Ky.) once inquired of a munitions sales representative "what about that $3,000?" and was told that it would be along in a day or so.

The same witness, a pretty ex-secretary in the Washington office of two midwest munitions firms, told the Senate war investigating committee that she had overheard a long distance telephone talk by her boss, a Yiddish nickname which she said they frequently used for May.

The secretary, a youthful brunette with coal black hair, was Mrs. Eleanor Hall. She testified that May had thrice visited the office where she worked and on one occasion had cautioned employees there to guard their telephone conversations "because the wires may be tapped."

With the close of her testimony, the committee suspended—at least temporarily—their public hearing—and decided to go into a huddle behind closed doors tomorrow to discuss legal processes for hailing May before it for a sworn explanation of his activities.

Into her testimony, Mrs. Hall sprinkled liberal references to expensive presents to high-ranking army officers and their wives, and to the business transactions which occurred during her employment and which she described as "very shady."

Woman Screams For Hearing
Her testimony ended in turmoil at day's end. As she stepped from the witness table, a husky-swarthy complexioned woman plunged toward the committee, sobbing and screaming denunciations of Mrs. Hall's character and testimony and demanding an opportunity to be heard.

Led by police from the committee chamber, she identified herself as Vanetha Sarelas Doukes, elder

ATOM CONTROL
BILL ATTACKEDCongressman Says There
Are Spies Inside The Oak Ridge Plant

BY WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

Washington, July 17. (P)—Rep. John E. Rankin (D-Miss.), fiercely attacking legislation for civilian control of atomic energy, told the house today "there are spies" now inside the Oak Ridge, Tenn., atomic plant and that investigators for the house committee on un-American affairs are after them.

Rankin declared the bill might result in release of the secret of the atom bomb to Communists. The world, he said, should be put on notice that "we are going to keep this bomb."

The way to do it, Rankin advised, is to kill the legislation and leave the bomb in charge of the military.

"I have never found a traitor graduated from West Point yet," the speaker declared.

The legislation also was assailed by Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.), who said Andrei Gromyko, Soviet representative on the United Nations security council, "couldn't have drawn a better bill for Russia."

The legislation drew stout defense of Rep. Clare Brewster Luce (R-Conn.) who said "It allows our government to maintain and protect our monopoly of atomic weapons * * * which otherwise might make their way into the hands of our potential enemies."

Agreement Reached
On Silver At 90.5;
Time Not Settled

Washington, July 17. (P)—A house-senate conference committee today agreed on the price at which government-owned silver may be bought and sold but still has to settle the time element.

The price of 90.5 cents an ounce finally proposed by the senate was accepted by the house members. For months the senate had held out for $1.29, the house for 71.11 cents.

The house bill limited the sale to a two-year period and the house conferees want to stick to that period. The senate members want no time limit.

The committee will meet again tomorrow.

Factory Hoarding
Of Scarce Goods
Cut Off By CPA

Washington, July 17. (P)—To prevent hoarding at the factory of scarce household appliances and other goods in hopes of higher consumer prices, the Civilian Production Administration tonight clamped stern inventory controls on manufacturers.

The anti-withholding order limits to a supply of 30 days or less the stocks of nearly a score of finished products which may be held in factories or warehouses. The rest must be moved to market.

The goods affected include furniture, refrigerators, washing machines, electric ranges, sewing machines and vacuum cleaners, cameras and photographic equipment and some building materials.

Simultaneously CPA tightened its control on the supplies of 27 materials and parts which manufacturers may keep in inventory. This is to prevent firms from buying them up and holding them as a hedge against rising raw materials prices.

RETIRED POLICE
CHIEF IS JAILEDConspiracy To Protect
Lansing Crap Games
Is Admitted

Lansing, July 17. (P)—Judge John Simpson of Jackson today sentenced John E. O'Brien, retired Lansing police chief who pleaded guilty to Grand jury gambling conspiracy charges, to 60 days in the Ingham county jail and placed him on two years probation.

O'Brien was indicted by the Ingham county grand jury in May, with Doris T. Feldman and Wallace Crafton of Lansing, accused of a conspiracy to protect illegal gambling, especially crap games in Lansing.

Judge Simpson said that "I feel in my heart that you have already been punished more than through anything I could do by the loss of your position in the community and the sorrow and disgrace you have brought upon yourself and your family."

He said he also was taking into consideration the fact that O'Brien had paid back the $5,600 he received.

Judge Simpson addressing O'Brien before he passed sentence, attacked the "inconsistent position of the state" which "on the one hand condemns gambling but on the other hand in a glorious blast of trumpets they legalize the biggest gambling, betting institution in the state and that's horse racing."

The judge declared the result was that "since that is legal, the people say why not run slot machines and crap games."

Escanaba Municipal Employees To Retire
Under State Setup

Lansing, July 17. (P)—Fourteen municipal employees—the first under a 1945 law setting up a pension plan for local governmental workers—have been approved for retirement, the State Municipal Employees' Retirement Fund Board announced today.

Included are: Charles Guay, 65, and A. J. Manley, 75, of Escanaba; James E. Annis, 71, and J. P. De Fevter, 75, of Holland; William A. Reddeman, 78, and Charles J. Thumme, 63, of Plymouth.

Twenty-one governmental units now are operating under the retirement law, latest additions including Escanaba and Hamtramck.

Congressmen Quit

Washington, July 17. (P)—Two Democrats resigned today from Congress to become federal judges.

They resigned before House consideration of a bill to raise judicial salaries.

The resignation letters of Reps. Murphy of Pennsylvania and Luther Johnson of Texas were read to the House.

MEAT BUYING
STRIKE GAINS
SLIM SUPPORTPRICES LEVEL OFF
AS BUTCHERING
INCREASES

(By The Associated Press)

Sporadic protests against rising living costs continued today but Michigan consumers appeared unwilling to support an organized meat buying strike.

Detroit retailers reported no immediate reaction to a plea from Walter Reuther, president of the CIO United Auto Workers, that housewives boycott butchers for a week in protest against OPA-less meat prices.

However, prices were affected somewhat by what merchants termed an unorganized "strike" against meat items which, in the opinion of buyers, are unreasonably high.

Picketing Gets Results

Meat prices in Detroit were reported leveling off with butchering of cattle trebled since the end of OPA July 1. Picketing of Jackson stores brought about a general 10 cent a pound reduction in meat prices, according to one AFL official there.

The uneasiness over spiraling living costs was reflected Tuesday in a series of protest meetings which drew thousands in Detroit, Jackson, Grand Rapids, Pontiac and Flint.

University of Michigan students demonstrated in Ann Arbor under the auspices of the American Veterans Committee today and announced plans for further protests Friday.

Foods Rise Under OPA

In Detroit, William Green, president of the AFL, told a news conference that prices since the end of the war have risen "25 percent to 65 and even 70 percent." However, he added, he has information leading him to hope that a new and more satisfactory OPA bill may be in the making in congress.

The State Department of Labor and Industry reported that food costs in seven Michigan cities rose from 0.5 to 6.1 percent during the year immediately preceding OPA's demise.

Such staples as potatoes have risen 40 percent in the past three months, the department said, without counting increases placed in effect since the end of OPA.

The price of milk has taken a general two cents a quart upsurge throughout the state and Grand Rapids braced itself for a two cent a loaf increase in the price of bread.

UNWISE, SAYS GREEN

Detroit, July 17. (P)—Strikes in retaliation against the removal of price control are "unwise at this time," William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, told the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees' convention today.

"The workers of the nation cannot and will not remain passive," he told the 700 delegates. "They must and will have more wages if prices increase."

However, he added, he has in-

ALLEGED KILLER OF WIFE FOUND Estranged Spouse Flees To California, Caught After Car Accident

Detroit, July 17. (AP)—A warrant charging first degree murder was issued today against Charles Jett, 29-year-old factory worker who fled to California by plane following the shooting of his estranged wife.

Jett's wife, Mary, 26, was wounded fatally July 10 by a bullet fired through her bedroom window. The shooting occurred a few hours before she was to appear at a hearing of her uncontested divorce suit.

Jett's detention came as a result of an automobile accident near Indio.

Police Sgt. Tom Tyson of Indio said Jett, hitchhiking south following his arrival in California, was driving a car owned by three brothers enroute to Oklahoma when he fell asleep at the wheel and crashed. All occupants of the car were injured. Jett attempted to escape from a hospital, Tyson said, resulting in his detention.

Tyson said Jett admitted the slaying in an oral statement and waived extradition to Michigan.

Deal Hinted To Get Heirens Confession For Life In Prison

Chicago, July 17. (AP)—Reports persisted today, despite denials from the principals involved, that a "deal" was impending or already completed whereby William Heirens would formally confess the Suzanne Degnan kidnapping and two other slayings in return for a life sentence recommendation.

These reports were published by Chicago's three afternoon newspapers today as Heirens indicated he had undergone a "truth serum" test with sodium pentothal June 29, shortly after his arrest.

Dr. William Haines, head of the Cook County Behavior Clinic and one of three psychiatrists who examined the 17 year old University of Chicago student on that date, quoted the prisoner as saying in his county jail cell today, "they put one over on me with this truth serum."

The Chicago Sun reported Heirens "admitted" the Suzanne Degnan kidnapping murder while under influence of the drug. State Attorney William J. Tuohy and Heirens' attorneys declined to comment on whether the drug was used.

The Chicago Tribune said Heirens "had told" of the three slayings but added that "it was stated definitely by both the prosecution and defense attorneys that Heirens did not tell of the murders" while under the influence of the "truth serum."

The Daily News also stated that Heirens had orally confessed the three slayings but added "they

AUG. 14 HOLIDAY IS PROCLAIMED

Michigan First State In Nation With Official "Victory Day"

Lansing, July 17. (AP)—Governor Kelly today asked that Michigan "publicly acknowledge our gratitude" to the state's World War II veterans on August 14, "Victory Day."

He said in a formal proclamation that Michigan is the first state in the nation to commemorate the first anniversary of V-J day by legislative action. The recent special session of the legislature set aside August 14 as "Victory Day" and a state holiday this year.

The governor declared Michigan can take "justifiable pride" in the devotion of the people at home and abroad.

"But most of all, we hold our heads high because of the splendid heroism of Michigan boys from the cities and farms and of the matching sacrificial service of their sisters. Together, the fighting sons and daughters of Michigan, despite an ingrained revulsion against the organized horror and tragic waste of war, rallied to defend the American principles of freedom, equality and justice they placed above even life itself."

Kelly asked that Michigan citizens "in affectionate remembrance of those sons and daughters of Michigan who will never return, join in the common resolve to so rededicate our every-day lives that Victory Day, unlike Armistice Day, will not mark a temporary cessation of hostilities, but will for all time be known as the day of victory over war."

sister of Louis Sarelas, $11,000-a-year office manager of the munitions establishment at the time when Mrs. Hall was employed there.

Speaking in a southern drawn, Mrs. Hall had quoted Sarelas as telling her that May had gotten him out of the army after only six weeks' service.

She said that members of the office—among them Joseph Freeman, the Washington agent of the combine, and Murray Garson, one of its promoters, "frequently" referred to May as "Yankel."

Upon the request of Mead, a committee investigator later explained that term as "Yiddish for 'little Jack' and said it meant 'he's not too smart.'"

Check For "Yankel"

Saying that she was on an office extension at the time, she testified that Freeman on one occasion telephoned E. M. Glazier, treasurer of one of the concerns in the combine, and inquired:

"What about that piece of paper?"

She said that Glazier responded: "What piece of paper—or something like that."

Then she quoted Freeman as saying: "You know what I mean—the $1,000 for Yankel."

She said that Glazier then promised to get the check in the mail the following day, and was "reprimanded" by Freeman for the delay.

On another occasion, she said that Sarelas came into the office carrying an envelope to pass on to Freeman, saying that it contained $1,000 and remarking that it was "going to the hill."

There were frequent telephone conversations, she said, between May and Freeman, even when May was out of town. She testified that Freeman called May "practically every other day" when he was at his home in Prestonsburg, Ky. She acknowledged that she didn't know what the conversations were about, but said she had the "impression they were about his elections."

Testimony has been introduced that May was listed as the Kentucky agent of the Cumberland Lumber company—a concern to which two of the munitions companies advanced $48,000 for lumber which was never delivered.

Mrs. Hall declared that Sarelas had informed her that Albert Jacobson, former acting chief of the Chemical Warfare Service legal division, was being paid $20,000 a year "by the Garssons."

Henry Garson and Murray Garson, brothers, were among the promoters and officials of the combine. Murray Garson, listed by the FBI as a one-time associate

Two Missing Yanks Unfound; Reds Say They Are Not Held

Frankfurt, Germany, July 17. (AP)—The two American officers who disappeared July 4 into the Russian zone of Berlin cannot be located by the Russian and Soviet authorities doubt that the men are being held there, an army public relations officer announced tonight.

The Russians stated they "have been unable to locate Capt. Harold Cobin and Second Lt. George Wyatt and that to the best of their knowledge they are not being held in the Russian zone," the announcement said.

At the same time Col. George S. Eyster, public relations chief in the European theater, disclosed that the three Russians arrested two weeks ago in the U. formation leading him to hope that a congressional conference committee will work out a revised OPA bill acceptable to President Truman.

"I know there is a strong feeling among many American workers to retaliate against profiteering and congressional blunders by striking," Green went on. "That is an unwise course at this time. In this crisis labor must exercise iron self discipline and restraint. We must refrain from causing any interruption of production, because production alone can save us."

Green reiterated his assertion that the present congress "is the worst congress that has ever been assembled" in the history of the nation and said its balance of power rests with "southern reactionaries and northern reactionaries."

In a press conference following his address on the convention floor, Green said a "well-organized, well-financed" AFL drive in the south has begun. He said the organizing force is concentrated at present on the Oak Ridge, Tenn., atomic bomb plant, where the army had modified regulations to the extent of permitting distribution of AFL literature before the plant's gates.

FISH FOR OFFICIAL

Detroit, July 17. (AP)—Walter P. Reuther, president of the CIO United Auto Workers is going to munch on some corned beef hash this weekend.

UAW Vice President Richard T. Leonard is destined for a couple of meals of tuna fish and UAW Secretary-Treasurer Georges F. Addes is due to eat some bass he caught on a fishing trip last weekend.

That was the picture in the top ranks of the UAW today, as its 600,000 members and many consumer groups began a week-long meat strike as a protest against price increases that followed removal of OPA controls.

Union headquarters said reports from varied sections of the country indicated "an enthusiastic response" to the UAW's call Tuesday for the ban on meat purchases.

Spokesmen for the Detroit Retail Meat Merchants Association said the slowdown in buying became noticeable even before the UAW's official declaration that meat was the No. 1 target of its hold-the-price-line campaign.

Rent Boosted

Sidney Black, president of the association, said the slowdown "was quite a bit more definite" today and scattered reports from meat merchants indicated their meat sales were way below par.

Some retailers reported they were doing a land-office business in spaghetti, macaroni and fish departments.

UAW public relations men insisted that little meat would be found on the tables of the auto workers this weekend.

Mrs. Walter P. Reuther, wife of the UAW leader, said her husband is in Washington for a CIO meeting but that he probably will be home in time to eat his share of the corned beef hash.

His menu for the rest of the week is going to include macaroni, cheese and a pound of bacon that Mrs. Reuther showed newsmen in her home today.

She said the bacon was bought before OPA controls went off.

Mrs. Leonard—whose husband is also out of town on UAW business—disclosed that her domestic troubles weren't limited to shopping. She told newsmen that Leonard, who is leading the UAW's fight against rent boosts, got a little notice in the mail today.

It informed him that his apartment rent has been boosted.

The investigation of the Heirens case has produced no major development since Tuohy announced yesterday that a former soldier had identified Heirens as a youth he saw carrying a paper bag a block from the Degnan home at about the time the six year old girl was kidnapped Jan. 7.

The prosecutor said they would seek murder indictments against Heirens in the Degnan case and the lipstick slaying Dec. 10 of Frances Brown, 33 year old former Wave. He said he needed more time to decide what action to take in the fatal stabbing of Mrs. Josephine Ross, 43 year old widow, June 5, 1945.

Heirens, held on 29 criminal charges of robbery, burglary and assault, has not been charged with any of the three slayings. He has denied published reports of a confession.

Airliner Hits Trees In Ecuador Field; 30 Burn To Death

Guayaquil, Ecuador, July 17. (AP)—Thirty passengers and company employees, including the pilot and co-pilot, were burned to death and two passengers were injured seriously today when an Andes airlines plane crashed while trying to land at Cuenca, Ecuador.

All 26 passengers were Ecuadorians. The pilot was Darwin Day of Yonkers, N. Y., and the co-pilot was Wayne Miller of Cheyenne, Wyo.

The plane was making a regular run from Guayaquil to Cuenca. Witnesses said the pilot overshot the landing field and attempted to gain altitude for another try. He failed to clear a small hill, however, and smashed into trees. The plane caught fire immediately.

Airliner Hits Trees In Ecuador Field; 30 Burn To Death

Guayaquil, Ecuador, July 17. (AP)—Thirty passengers and company employees, including the pilot and co-pilot, were burned to death and two passengers were injured seriously today when an Andes airlines plane crashed while trying to land at Cuenca, Ecuador.

All 26 passengers were Ecuadorians. The pilot was Darwin Day of Yonkers, N. Y., and the co-pilot was Wayne Miller of Cheyenne, Wyo.

The plane was making a regular run from Guayaquil to Cuenca. Witnesses said the pilot overshot the landing field and attempted to gain altitude for another try. He failed to clear a small hill, however, and smashed into trees. The plane caught fire immediately.

Taxicab Question May Be Decided By City Council Tonite

The vexing question of whether to permit more taxicab companies to go into business in the city or not will probably be settled at the regular meeting of the city council tonight. At least it is on tonight's agenda where it has regularly appeared for the past several council sessions, no decision ever having been reached.

An allied question, that of revising the present taxicab ordinance to permit the cab companies to change their rates only with council's approval, will also be considered.

Other matters to be given the council's attention this evening include: consideration of hiring consulting engineers to advise the city regarding expansion of the sewage disposal plant; appointment of a new member on the city's civil service commission to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of Charles Folio who does not desire re-appointment; petition for a street light on the corner of 16th Avenue north and 19th street.

Receipt of bids on city lots south of the conservation department which have been offered for sale; petitions and estimates for sanitary sewer on block 25 and 26, I. S. Company addition; transfer of John A. Johnson (Union tavern) license to Gertrude and Henry Marenger; consideration of selling rear part of city lot where sub station is located west of the Clairmont Transfer; consideration of vacating one block of North 18th street south of Seventh avenue north.

NOTE BUSINESS UPTREND HERE

Escanaba Bank Debts
Increase Highest In Upper Peninsula

The June 1946 volume of bank debts in Escanaba show a 19 per cent increase when compared with the same month in 1945, and the cumulative total for January through June was 34 per cent above that of last year, according to a report from the Federal Reserve Bank at Minneapolis.

The 34 per cent increase in bank business for the first six months of this year is the highest among the larger communities of the Upper Peninsula, the report shows. Marquette had an increase of 6 per cent, Menominee 11 per cent, Ironwood 32 per cent, while Sault Ste. Marie declined by 2 per cent.

These bank debit figures represent the dollar volume of checks drawn by depositors against their bank accounts to pay for goods, services, debts, etc. For a locality bank debts are considered a good indicator of the volume of business transacted, for they reflect the amount spent by farmers, business and government in payrolls, for materials as well as the amount spent by consumers in the general trade channels.

For the whole Upper Peninsula June debts were 11 per cent above those of last year, while the cumulative total was 12 per cent above that of 1945. Escanaba debts were above averages for the Upper Peninsula and for the whole Ninth Federal Reserve District.

Bank debts for June in Marquette continued to lead other U. P. cities in volume, totaling $7,872,000. Escanaba was second with $6,442,000, and Sault Ste. Marie was third with $5,873,000.

Comparative figures for the first half of 1946 compared with the same period last year are as follows:

City	1946	1945	Per cent
Calumet	$13,725,000	$13,452,000	102
Escanaba	40,176,000	30,090,000	134

Ironwood	19,736,000	14,898,000	132
Marquette	10,438,000	9,895,000	122

Wm. Constantineau, Bark River Farmer, Claimed By Death

William Constantineau, 62, of Bark River route two, died yesterday morning at St. Francis hospital, following an illness of 15 months duration.

He was born July 15, 1884, at St. Lucy, Province of Quebec, Canada, and came to the United States when he was 15 years old. For the past 45 years he made his home near Bark River, where he was engaged in farming. He was a member of the Sacred Heart church of Schaffer.

He is survived by his widow and one son, Albert R., at home; the following brothers, Albert of Escanaba; Henry of Perronville; Edmund of Iron Mountain; and two grandchildren.

The body will be in state at the Boyce funeral chapel this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Funeral services will be held Friday morning

Boys, 15, Confess To Burglaries Here; Will Have Hearings

Two 15-year-old Escanaba boys, both on probation from a state vocational school for juvenile delinquents, yesterday admitted to police the burglary of a wrist watch and pair of gloves from the Delta Baking company here Sunday night. They confessed also to two robberies on July 3 in which they took $49 in cash from the LeCaplain store, 324 Stephenson avenue, and fifty cents from the Hansen & Jensen fish market.

The boys spent the money on a Fourth of July celebration. Police have recovered the watch but the gloves are still unaccounted for. Police Chief Michael Ettenhofer said the boys will be brought before Probate Judge William J. Miller, probably this week, and an effort will be made to place them in private homes outside of the city.

The youngsters are being held in the detention home here.

at eight o'clock at the Sacred Heart church of Schaffer, the Rev. Roland Dion officiating. Burial will be made in the Schaffer cemetery.

Cost Of Building Too High, National Survey Indicates

Nine out of ten prospective home owners eligible to build under the Wyatt housing plan consider building costs too high, according to a nation-wide survey conducted by Ponderosa Pine Woodwork, Chicago.

Only 36.3 per cent of those eligible to build think that building costs will come down within the next few years.

The survey shows little variation of opinion between those eligible to build at this time and those not eligible on the question of high building costs. There was some slight variation between the eligible and non-eligible group, however, on the question of whether building costs may be expected to fall within a few years, the non-eligible group tending more strongly to the belief that prices eventually will be lower.

Eligible and non-eligibles, however, are agreed in thinking that further physical improvement in building materials and equipment may come within a few years. Of those eligible to build under the Wyatt plan, 78.1 per cent anticipate improvement, while of the non-eligibles, 75.7 per cent agree.

School Consolidation

MERGER of the Harris and Bark River school districts, overwhelmingly approved by the voters of the two townships this week, constitutes another in a growing series of consolidation of school districts in Michigan.

The merger of school districts is designed to create more efficiency and economy in education. As educational standards increase, the smaller school districts have found it difficult to meet the pace on limited assessed valuations. The consolidations make possible better educational facilities for the combined districts.

The Bark River-Harris merger, consolidating two adjacent districts in different counties, will ultimately make possible the erection in Bark River of a 12-grade high school. The present 12-grade Harris high school will then be used as a junior high school for the district. Bark River students of the 11th and 12th grades will continue to be transported to the Escanaba high school for another year. Each district now has two elementary grade schools.

The success of the consolidation of school districts which has made possible the advancement of education suggests the advisability of the merger of townships for better local government, or even the merger of counties, for that matter, to gain the same end.

We're In "For Keeps"

ON successive days Secretary Byrnes and Senator Vandenberg, recently returned from the foreign ministers' conference at Paris, have sharply attacked Soviet Russia for failure to cooperate with all efforts to settle the problems of post-war Europe, particularly in writing the terms of the peace treaty with Germany and Austria.

As Senator Vandenberg pointed out in an address to his colleagues in the United States senate Tuesday, the Potsdam agreement for splitting Germany into four military zones was a tragic mistake. Each of the occupation zones is being governed without consideration of what is happening in the other zones. They have become, as Sen. Vandenberg so aptly reported, "air-tight compartments preventing the exchange of goods or communications or even ideas."

The mistrust and suspicions that have developed between the American and Soviet governments, which both Secretary Byrnes and Senator Vandenberg have bluntly admitted are a menace to world peace, have been created to a considerable extent by the existence of the separate occupation zones in Germany.

It is well that the American statesmen, one a Democrat and the other a Republican, have spoken so frankly to the European people about the realities of the European situation. Both have specifically blamed Russia for failure of the foreign ministers conference to reach agreement on critical issues.

The game that Russia is playing is one designed to discourage American participation in the affairs of Europe, hoping apparently that America will pull out and let Russia operate with a free hand in inflicting its ruthless philosophy on the entire European continent.

Senator Vandenberg effectively met that challenge in his statement that the United States has enlisted "for keeps" in the effort to make sure that military aggression "shall never curse the earth again."

We made the mistake of withdrawing from European affairs after the first World War, with the result that World War II developed and the blood of a million American men was shed on the battlefields of Europe.

The American policy this time is to stay in the fight for a just peace, to cooperate with all nations sincerely interested for a just peace, to cooperate with all nations sincerely interested in finding an adequate basis for settlement of world problems without resort to war. We will not be brow-beaten or high-pressured into decisions that we know are wrong and that are contrary to American principles of decency and justice. Russia may as well recognize this position now.

Nazi Killers Doomed

THE ruthless slaughter of 900 American prisoners of war and Belgium citizens in the battle of the bulge in Nazi Germany has resulted in the conviction of 73 Nazi S. S. officers and men who participated in the massacre. Forty-three have been sentenced to death and 30 others were given prison terms, most of them life sentences. The Malmedy massacre was one of the most vile breaches of military law in modern times. It was committed by picked troops of Adolf Hitler's blackguards and constituted one of a long list of atrocities that demonstrated the type of murderers who ruled Germany in the Hitler era.

These doomed men now ask the privilege of dying before a firing squad instead of being executed by hanging as prescribed by the formal death sentence. They deserve no consideration at all and the U. S. military court is doing a disservice to those Americans who were so ruthlessly murdered in forwarding the recommendation to Gen. McNarney, the U. S. commander in Europe. These Nazi killers have earned the disgrace of all mankind.

C. Harold Wescoat

THE sudden death in Copper Harbor Tuesday of C. Harold Wescoat recalls the promotional work in pioneering of aviation in Escanaba accomplished by Wescoat in the several years that he lived in this community.

With Wally Arntzen, veteran Escanaba flier now associated with Pioneer Aviation of this city, Wescoat vigorously worked for improved aviation facilities throughout the Upper Peninsula, generally against considerable odds. Wescoat's philosophy on aviation was somewhat ahead of its time with the result that his aviation promotion here went broke.

Moving to the Copper Country, Wescoat turned his attention to resort development with the same enthusiasm that he had shown in the field of aviation. In this field he received more generous cooperation because the resort possibilities of the Upper Peninsula were more generally recognized. He built his Pontiac Hotel property at Copper Harbor into one of the peninsula's outstanding tourist resorts. He has made a notable contribution both to the cause of aviation and resorting in the Upper Peninsula.

Men like C. Harold Wescoat have proved that there still is plenty of room for pioneering in the Upper Peninsula, if you have the courage and tenacity that is required.

WISCONSIN'S DEER (Milwaukee Journal)

Wisconsin's conservation commission has postponed action on the nature of next fall's deer hunting season because of certain disagreements.

The conservation congress—an elected body chosen at county meetings, largely by sportsmen—wants a nine day season on bucks only.

Ernest Swift, deputy director of the conservation department and a leading authority on deer in the state, proposes a four day season on deer of either sex.

Mr. Swift is supported by Commissioner Aldo Leopold of the University of Wisconsin, who has said that "the deer herd is threatening the state's forestry program."

Of course it is. Those who have seen white pine plantations destroyed, or the damage done to six or eight year old trees of other varieties, by browsing, know that in some places there can be no new forests unless the deer herd is reduced.

The killing of deer is well as bucks. The way to reduce the herd is to permit the killing of does as well as bucks.

Not many in Wisconsin like the idea of sharply reducing any species of wild life. Deer, of course, are especially appealing to the people. They not only are Wisconsin's greatest game animal but are a constant joy to those who but see them. Lithe, graceful, alert, as they stand and watch a car or bound through the woods, they are a valuable addition to the resort regions and are wanted there in numbers by resort men and their guests.

But the herd cannot be allowed to become too big if young trees are to grow, if overbrowsing of older trees is to be curbed, if the herd isn't to eat itself out of subsistence, with many of its individuals starving.

Record Saturday-Sunday driving is reported over the country. It's a great life if you don't week-end.

A man who hoarded his money formerly was known as a miser. Today he's a wizard.

Take My Word For it . . . Frank Colby

WHEN IS A MAN NOT A MAN?

Q. Just before school ended, my English class divided into two camps over the proper pronunciation of --man in such compounds as iceman, fireman, etc. One group insisted --man should be pronounced "man" to rhyme with "can"; the other was equally emphatic that the "a" of --man should be obscured as in German. We found no answer in the dictionary. Can you give us a dependable rule?—Mrs. A. H. W.

Answer: There is no rule; nor have I been able to work out any pattern that would explain why --man is pronounced "man" in some words, and "m'n" in others.

In American speech, these words are customarily pronounced with "man" to rhyme with "can": caveman, fireman, milkman, juncman, ragman, madman, mailman, sandman, yardman, strawman, superman, oilman, eggman, radioman, workman, businessman, garbageman, haggageman, bogeyman, cameraman, middleman.

These words are pronounced with the obscure "m'n": chairman, fireman, footman, boatman, hangman, horseman, postman, salesman, seaman, yegman, showman, spokesman, sportsman, alderman, baseman, churchman, clergyman, congressman, countryman, cracksmen, craftsman, dairyman, marksman, motorman, committeeman, switchman, penman, ranchman.

There are many more --man words, of course, but these typical ones should provide sufficient material for you word-hunters who may want to examine the groups in an attempt to discover what causes the pronunciations to vary. Note that in both groups there are --man words of two, three, and four syllables. Also, some words begin with vowels, and others begin with consonants. Does euphony offer a clue? Apparently

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington—Six years ago, this nation was on the eve of perhaps the bitterest campaign in our political history. The issue was isolation or intervention, acceptance of Nazi domination in the west or a challenge to that domination.

As a Washington reporter for the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, I had spent many days and nights running down intrigues that seemed to lead to direct German intervention in our domestic affairs. But I could never pin down the missing piece of evidence, which was the direct use of Nazi money to influence a political decision in this country.

Now that missing piece has come to light. It was uncovered in the course of the brilliant investigation directed by O. John Rogge for the Department of Justice in occupied Germany.

The key figure was the late William Rhodes Davis, the American oil man whose plots and counterplots were beyond any fiction. I wrote columns about the ins and outs of Davis' deals aimed at helping to supply oil to the Nazis. But always, pieces of the puzzle were missing.

—NAZI INTRIGUE—

Now three top Nazis—Herman Goering, Herbert von Strepel, formerly of the German embassy in Washington, and Joachim Hertslet, who was Goering's agent in the western hemisphere—have separately told the same story. It began when von Strepel was asked what was the single most important Nazi propaganda development in this country. He replied promptly that it was in the fall of 1939 when Hertslet came to him in the German embassy in Washington to announce that he had at least $5,000,000 in the United States to spend in defeating Roosevelt if the president should seek a third term.

Von Strepel was skeptical. He was not familiar with Hertslet's operations in this hemisphere. But a call to Berlin quickly assured him that Hertslet was Goering's No. 1 man and that he could deliver the goods.

Hertslet's call on von Strepel held out of conferences which Davis had given with Goering in the spring of that same year. They discussed ways and means of preventing a third term for Roosevelt. Davis boasted of friendship with John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers, and told Goering he could persuade Lewis to come out actively against Roosevelt.

Just how much Nazi money passed through Davis' hands is not known. One figure given was $440,000. Asked if $5,000,000 was the amount spent against Roosevelt, Goering said indignantly: "Five millions! We were prepared to spend from $150,000,000 to $200,000,000 to achieve that end."

—MEXICAN OIL TO GERMANY—

It was widely printed that Lewis had helped Davis in the latter's Mexican oil deals after United States oil properties were seized by the Mexican government, and that Lewis had vouched for Davis with Vicente Lombardo Toledano, head of the Mexican Confederation of Workers and a power in the Cardenas regime. Thanks to Davis' tankers and other Davis resources, Mexican oil went to build up German reserves. Lombardo Toledano was following the Communist line which, before the German attack on Russia, branded the war as an imperialist plot by such "have" powers as Great Britain. That is why, even in late 1939 and early 1940, Mexican oil went through the British Blockade to then neutral Italy and to Vladivostok in Siberia, and thence to Germany.

I had met Hertslet through an associate of Davis in a suite in the Mayflower Hotel. I suspected his importance at the time, but I never actually learned the extent of his role. Interviewed by Rogge in the Russian zone in Germany, he did not hesitate to tell a complete story that dovetailed with Goering's account.

As the Willkie-Roosevelt race drew to a bitter climax, Davis was credited, in stories written at the time, with persuading Lewis to come out openly for Willkie instead of merely condemning both candidates. Davis was also credited with supplying up to $50,000 of the total cost of Lewis' dramatic broadcast in which he denounced Roosevelt and asked labor to vote for Willkie. Later, Davis told a grand jury he had contributed more than $40,000 to the Willkie campaign. One of his associates announced he had put up $100,000 for an anti-war committee.

After Willkie's defeat, Davis followed him to Florida to try to dissuade him from his rumored intention of coming out for Roosevelt's foreign policy. Shortly after that meeting, Willkie telephoned to me from Florida to say he had had no knowledge of any contribution from Davis and would have rejected it if he had known of it. I believe that was true. A little later, Willkie went to Britain and returned to back lend-lease.

What was Davis' motive in these devious intrigues? That is what I want to try to show in a subsequent column giving more of the background of this fantastic story.

THE GAY CITY—Center of culture in old Europe and gayest city in the world—that was once Vienna, Austria. Today it is a city scarred by war, plagued by poverty, its blithe spirit dimmed by advancing age and the infirmities of about 900 years of existence.

Staff Sgt. Gideon R. Stegath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Stegath, 922 So. Seventh avenue. But the gay city is resuming its entertainment role once again despite the ravages of war, Stegath writes.

"The operas are very good. Although sung in German, you can still understand the lovely music. Tickets are made available to the Allied Forces through their respective theater ticket agencies. Usually there is an opera every night, but not the same one. Movie houses are numerous but extremely small, housing 200 to 300 persons at each performance, of which three or four are held daily."

THE BLACK MARKET—"You must likely have heard of the black market no matter where you go in the world," Stegath writes after one year in Vienna. "It is not so big here as it was when the first troops of the American army arrived. Last Christmas cigarettes were selling for $70. That is, the American cigarette was. English cigarettes were only getting $40 a carton."

"A four-ounce can of coffee brought $8 at Christmas time, now it is only $4. Candy bars sold previously for $15, now sell for $2.50. A big drop there."

"In my case, I sell my cigarettes, and give my other stuff to my fiancée, who then gives it to her mother, who trades it with the Russians for food and whatever else they will give."

WATCH ON THE DANUBE—"The Russians loved any kind of a watch that had a black face and made a lot of noise. They would pay fabulous prices for these watches, thinking that if a watch ticked loudly it was a god one. Many men made a lot of money."

"Karlsplatz was the black market center, but the military police have put a stop to that. Every now and then the police make a surprise raid and bring all of the persons in the platz at the time to the police station for questioning about the business they have in the platz at the time of the raid."

FOOD IS SCARCE—Stegath reports that in the American section of the city the American government is doing everything it can to get streets cleared of rubble, shanty ruins removed, and business established once again.

"Several businesses that were completely bombed out or partially destroyed are getting back into operation again. There isn't much the stores have to sell except souvenirs, but they are very nice. It is forbidden for the G. I.'s to buy any clothes or food, for there is very little for the civilians at present."

THE MUSIC MASTERS—"Vienna is the home of several famous musicians including Mozart, Schubert and Beethoven. After seeing the dismal rooms where Mozart lived you wonder where he received inspiration to write such wonderful music."

INTO THE PAST

10 Years Ago—1936

Cooling breezes off the lake arrived in time to give Escanaba ideal weather for the biggest convention ever held in this city—the 16th annual Upper Peninsula American Legion and Auxiliary reunion, being held here today, Friday and Saturday.

Phyllis Jean Rouse, burned July 4 when her dress caught fire from an exploding firecracker, was readmitted to St. Francis hospital suffering with an infection from the wound.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Severinsen, 1407 First avenue north, are the parents of a daughter, born Thursday afternoon at St. Francis hospital.

Appointment of Clem Flanagan, Denis McGinn and Harvey Gorman to the civil service commission for the purpose of establishing the merit system for the city employees was confirmed by the Escanaba city council at its regular meeting last evening.

20 Years Ago—1916
Walter Todd, 26, died Saturday evening at 9:30 o'clock at St. Francis hospital, where he had been taken Wednesday afternoon in a critical condition, suffering from a ruptured appendix.

A daughter was born Friday afternoon at St. Francis hospital to Mr. and Mrs. John McCarthy, 322 First avenue south. The child has been named Laura Agnes.

Manistique—Matches shot in a toy air gun by two youngsters were the cause of a fire which damaged a barn and garage at the John L. Doyle home on Lake Street Friday evening.

Dr. James Mitchell was re-elected president of the Gladstone board of education at the organization meeting held Friday evening at the school.

other letter to his parents, Stegath told of meeting Arnold Gasman of Escanaba, whose wife, the former Beatrice Maisonneuve, resides at 417 South Tenth street. Stegath and Gasman met in Vienna, of course, where Gasman had recently been in the army. Because her husband may be in Austria with occupation forces for a considerable time, Mrs. Gasman may join him there this coming fall.

ORDER RESTORED—"There is little crime in Vienna at the present time," Stegath's letter continues. "Last winter there were several gangs of young fellows between the ages of 15 and 25. Many members of the gangs were apprehended and sentenced to terms in jail. They thought the police were too dumb and would never put them behind bars. But after several were caught the crime was reduced quite sharply."

"Transportation is gradually being restored. New street car lines are being strung, street cars are being repaired, and facilities that have been standing for centuries, like the old Vienna opera house, are being repaired."

"They set fire to the Votive church and old St. Stephen's cathedral, two of the most famous in Austria. They set fire to several opera houses, museums, palaces that have been standing for centuries, and movie houses. The SS troops tried to destroy all of the Parliament building but succeeded in destroying only half of it."

"However, if things continue as they are now it won't be long be-

What do you want to know? We will answer questions on any subject not involving extended research. Legal or medical advice cannot be given. Write your question clearly, sign your name and address, and (IMPORTANT) MAIL THIS COUPON and a 3-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope to the ESCANABA DAILY PRESS SERVICE BUREAU, 1217 Thirteenth St., Washington 5, D. C., for a personal reply. Don't telephone; write as directed.

Q. Does a soldier receive credit for time spent in confinement by reason of being AWOL?
A. No.

Q. How much pay does a staff sergeant receive? He has been in the service four years and overseas for the past two years.
A. His base pay is $96 per month, plus 5 per cent for longevity pay, and 20 per cent for overseas duty; a total of $120 per month.

Q. I understand that new types of explosive rivets have been used in defense work. What are they?
A. The rivets contain a minute quantity of high explosive in cavities in their shanks. When the rivet is inserted in place, the explosive is set off by heat applied to the head with an electric "gun," and the resulting explosion can be so accurately controlled that the resulting expansion of the rivet shank can be held within limits of .02 inch.

Q. Why do the same gauge of nylon hose sell for a variety of prices at different shops?
A. As DuPont makes all nylon yarn, the actual yarn is the same no matter what make of hose or what price is paid for them. Gauge refers to the number of vertical threads in an inch-and-a-half around the stocking. All perfect 45 gauge stockings, for instance, will have the same number of vertical threads and the yarn will be of approximately the same quality. The difference in price depends on the store make-up, difference in the construction of the stockings (some are made more carefully shaped, finished and reinforced at the toe and heel), the number of courses, or crosswise stitches between the top of the welt and heel, and, in some instances, the modishness of the color.

Q. When did the forward pass become legal in football?
A. Forward passes were introduced into football under elaborate restrictions in 1906.

Q. What South American country is known as the "Land of the Holy Cross"?
A. Brazil. On April 24, 1500, Pedro Alvarez Cabral, a Portuguese navigator, took possession of the country in the name of the King of Portugal, and named it Terra de Santa Cruz, or Land of the Holy Cross.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington—Here's the inside story on the sudden appointment of John Leighton Stuart as the new American ambassador to China.

Originally, President Truman planned to appoint Lieut. Gen. Al Wedemeyer ambassador to China. As a matter of fact, Wedemeyer's nomination had already been typed and was on the President's desk. However, last week General Marshall sent Truman an urgent cable advising that he had finally found one man who could act as ambassador and who was on good terms with both the Communists and the Chiang Kai-Shek group. Marshall also pointed out that Stuart had lived in China for 50 years and spoke fluent Chinese.

So, 24 hours later, President Truman nominated J. Leighton Stuart to be American ambassador to China.

—TRUMAN GETS HIS MAN—

It was the direct hand of the President of the United States which brought the kiss of death to Roger C. Slaughter of Kansas City, Democratic congressman from the district next to Truman's. Slaughter has opposed almost every piece of Truman legislation before congress.

Despite denials from Democratic headquarters, here's what actually happened. President Truman last month wrote to Bryce B. Smith, a former mayor of Kansas City, stating that something had to be done regarding the fifth congressional race and that the election of Slaughter was absolutely impossible. The chief executive added that he would rather see a Republican elected than have Slaughter returned to congress. He asked Smith to confer with James M. Pengergast, head of the county's "Goat" faction.

Pengergast was hard to find, but after three days Smith finally caught up with him.

"Why should I do anything like that?" Pengergast snorted. "Truman has done nothing for me."

Smith reported this back to the White House, and a few days later received a second letter from Truman who said that probably what Pengergast meant was that the President hadn't done anything for him "lately." Truman then sent a note direct to Pengergast and asked him point-blank whether he was for Slaughter or the President of the United States.

The note brought results. Pengergast hopped a plane and was in Washington next day. After he returned, Democratic leaders learned that the "Goat" faction of the Democratic party would back Enos Axtell, former assistant county prosecutor for Congress.

The "Rabbit" Democrats, headed by Frank Shannon, several months ago, indicated they would support Jerome Walsh, former OPA attorney who has strong labor support. Most "Rabbit" leaders, however, were too strong for labor, favoring Axtell.

—ARGENTINE ATOM BOMBS—

The Fascist Argentine government has just completed elaborate plans for going into the atomic-bomb business on a scale parallel to that of the United States.

The Argentine Scientific association has proposed and received the approval of the Argentine war and navy departments to finance the importation and operations of the best nuclear physicists in the world, including German refugees.

The Argentine government is guaranteeing these scientists unlimited funds, complete scientific liberty, and absolute personal security from police terror. The head of one important Argentine scientific group informed the Peron government that Nazi scientists are doing well but are still not operating rapidly enough to satisfy the Argentines.

—ATOMIC RAT RACE—

U. S. atomic delegate Bernie Baruch has confided to friends that he is much opposed to having the chairmanship of the Atomic commission rotate each month. This means that Australian Foreign Minister Herbert Evatt, a United Nations dynamo, now steps down as chairman.

The Australian is about the only member of the Atomic commission who has Soviet envoy Gromyko afraid of him. The other day Gromyko opposed a decision by majority rule, proposing a two-thirds vote instead. Evatt was on the Russian in a flash.

"It's not necessarily true, Mr. Gromyko, that the majority is always wrong," rebuked the Australian.

On another occasion, Gromyko was protesting against the Baruch plan. Instead he proposed immediate destruction of all existing atomic bombs and the release of the atomic bomb secret by the United States.

When Bernie Baruch, listening through his ear phone, heard this he became almost apoplectic. But before Baruch could speak, Evatt took on the Russian again.

"You know, Mr. Gromyko," said Evatt, "not all the parliaments in the world would approve all the proposals that you make here. If they did, it would be a different world."

"But," protested Gromyko, "world public opinion demands it. It demands the destruction of this horrible weapon by mankind."

"World public opinion, did you say?" asked Evatt. "Of course, you know that there are certain sections of public opinion in this world which are not in a position to demand anything, and I am sure you know what sections I mean."

Gromyko smiled weakly, said nothing. But Evatt wasn't through.

"I'm afraid what you want, Mr. Gromyko, is for the United States to throw away its bomb and give everybody else the secret so we could all start evenly. I think the United States has been extremely generous. What you want to do is to change a handicap race to a scratch race, rather than a race to save the people of the world."

Silent Gromyko sat, scowled.

CHANGE CHARGE IN WRECK CASE

Green Bay Trucker Faces Felony Driving Charge

Prosecuting Attorney Clyde McGonagle moved yesterday to change the charge of drunken driving against Thomas J. Young, Green Bay truck driver held here following a serious motor accident just north of the city last Friday night, to felony driving and Young will be arraigned this afternoon on that charge.

Justice of the Peace Henry Ranguette set Young's bond at $1,000. The Green Bay man is in the county jail here. He had pleaded not guilty to the drunken driving charge.

After arraignment today on the more serious charge, a hearing will be set for next Tuesday afternoon, July 23, to determine if the evidence produced warrants trial in circuit court.

Felony driving is a circuit court offense and carries a maximum penalty of two years imprisonment, a fine not to exceed $1,000 or both.

Sheriff's department and state police officers who arrested Young last Friday evening said that the new soap company truck he was driving was on the wrong side of highway US2-41 when it struck the coach of Charles Woods of Flint. Woods, his wife and two children are still confined to St. Francis hospital with injuries they received in the accident. Their nine-year-old son, Raymond, has a broken back. Hospital attendants said yesterday there was "slight improvement" in their condition.

Rotary Committee Meets On Crippled Children Program

The crippled children's committee of the Escanaba Rotary club yesterday afternoon conferred with Percy Angrove, Detroit, secretary of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children in the superintendent's office at Junior High school, where Angrove explained the uses of funds collected in the annual Easter Seal Sale campaign.

Present at the meeting besides Angrove were James Degnan, chairman of the Rotary committee, Leslie Olson, George Lindenthal, Matt Peterson and Charles Henderson. The Escanaba Rotary club has been active in fund raising and sponsorship of clinics for the benefit of crippled children in the community.

Angrove explained that last year $12,000 was raised in the Upper Peninsula through seal sales, of which 60 per cent remains in the community and 40 per cent is returned to the Michigan Society for Crippled Children for work on a state-wide basis. Expenditures for such work through the Society in the U. P. last year totaled $19,000 and Angrove explained where the major portion of the funds had been used.

A rheumatic fever control center was established at Marquette. This disease accounts for 90 per cent of the cardiac conditions among children. In connection with orthopedic rooms at St. Luke's hospital in Marquette a man was established there to make and fit artificial limbs and braces, and occupational therapy was added to the list of services financed by the Society, Angrove said. Renovation of Big Bay Health Camp near Marquette, which annually accommodates 102 Upper Peninsula crippled and afflicted children, was done at a cost of $6,000.

Angrove expressed appreciation to the community for its purchase of seals, and praised the Rotary club for its interest in crippled children's work.

War Hero's Parents Receive Condolences From War Secretary

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Palmgren, Bark River, parents of the late Sgt. Chester E. Palmgren, a paratrooper of the 101st Airborne Division who was killed in action in the battle of the Bulge on Jan. 7, 1945, recently received the following letter from Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson:

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Palmgren: I have recently learned that you are the parents of five sons whose services have been given to the armed forces. Arnold H. Palmgren and Chester E. Palmgren are on the rolls of the army, and Wesley Palmgren, Marvin Palmgren and Donald E. Palmgren of the navy.

One of your sons has sacrificed his life in the service of his country. In extending my deep sympathy to you for this loss, I should like to express my gratitude for the service of these fine young men. I am actually aware of the anxieties which war requires of parents, even when providence returns their sons unharmed. In your case, the sacrifice is heavy to bear, since it has taken one of your sons from you.

In spite of your sorrow, I know that you must feel a great sense of pride in the contribution to victory which your sons have made in the late ruthless war. You may be sure that the nation shares this feeling with all parents whose courageous boys drove forward with our forces to crush the military power of our enemies and to bring us peace at last.

Very sincerely yours,
Robert P. Patterson

The other Palmgren boys have all been honorably discharged from the armed forces.

Residents Asked To Use Proper Size Garbage Containers

Although most residents are complying with the garbage regulations and thus enabling public works department employees to do a faster and more efficient weekly collection job, there are some who continue to use containers larger than the prescribed size and otherwise hamper the work, Joe

Holmes, superintendent of the department, reports.

He reminds these citizens that containers of more than the 30 gallon maximum size cannot be handled by the department.

Other collection rules follow: Cans must be placed within ten feet of the alley line but containers at homes which have no alley frontage will be serviced; if the yard is fenced, place the can near the gate or build a platform so cans are accessible from the alley.

Cans must have handles, unattached covers and must be of reasonable weight (not to exceed 30 gallons).

All garbage should be wrapped. Garbage cans should be rinsed out once each week. Cans will last longer if placed on a platform.

A collection of grass cuttings and rubbish which can be placed in separate containers is made once each month when possible. Waste construction materials, tree trimmings and other heavy rubbish must be hauled by private agencies or the resident himself. This type of rubbish is not being collected by the city.

Alger Vets Asked Not To Drop Their GI Life Insurance

Munising. — Frances Cauchon, Alger county veterans' counselor, urged returned vets yesterday to keep their National Life Insurance until they have had a chance to talk over with him the plan of converting it to a different type policy. "Too many returning vets are dropping their insurance policy, and practically throwing their money away for doing so," he said. "They can keep this insurance as 'Term' insurance for eight years from the time they took it out, he explained, if it was purchased prior to January 1, 1946, or for five years if purchased after that date, and it can be converted into ordinary life, 20-pay life, or 30-pay life.

If the veteran has let his insurance lapse, it can be reinstated. If it is term insurance, as 99 percent of it is, it doesn't even have to have all premiums paid to reinstate, just two months premiums must be paid, with little or no red tape to it, he said.

He asked that veterans hang on to their insurance even if the form of payment isn't exactly what they'd like. Congress liberalized the policies issued during the last

Claude Weikle Has Song Copyrighted And Recording Made

Munising. — Munising has a "natural" song writer in the person of Claude Weikle, anyone will agree that has had the pleasure of hearing any of the 22 songs he's written since becoming interested in jotting words on paper, fitting them to a tune and making them rhyme.

He's only had one copyright and a recording made, but is composing verses and humming a tune to fit other songs, while waiting to see what happens to this first "publishing."

"The Old Quartet," a song telling about an old quartet that used to sing together until one after the other dropped out and there was just the lone person left, has been copyrighted and recordings and music made by a studio in Hollywood.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH PAINTED

Recent Improvement Gives Property Bright Appearance

Members of the First Baptist church are taking much satisfaction in the appearance of their church and parsonage since its recent painting and cleaning.

A bright and clean white has supplanted the drab slate gray of the buildings, giving it an imposing appearance which was not possible with the old color scheme. The interiors of the buildings have also been cleaned. This has been no small undertaking as the church is one of the largest edifices in the city.

The first Baptist church, while not necessarily the pioneer church of the city, is among the oldest. The congregation was organized in 1872 and the corner stone for the present church was laid eleven years later.

The Rev. J. D. B. Adams is the present pastor.

Manistique All Set To Extend Glad Hand To Throngs Of Visitors

Manistique's glad hand is out today to welcome the vanguard of the huge gathering of ex-servicemen and Auxiliary members coming this week-end to Upper Peninsula's first peace time Legion convention.

Business places bear welcome signs gaily emblazoned on bunting of national and American Legion colors and up and down the main streets of the city large banners of a similar nature, strung across the streets, have given the place a carnival appearance.

Committees assigned to care for the manifold details necessary to make local hospitality function properly and making the convention click are working against time to have everything in order when the big days arrive.

Housing OK
Among the committees whose tasks have been little short of a nightmare, the housing committee reports that the situation is fairly well under control. Leonard Multhaupt, chairman of the committee, is advising all local residents who have volunteered to receive visitors in their homes that those of the guests who have already registered will be sent to homes when they arrive and that the hosts have been notified by mail. Subsequent guests will be sent to homes with notes vouching for them, signed by a member of the committee.

The city will be well policed with both state and city police forces increased and the Legion also providing a staff of its own under the direction of Buck Jackson. The latter will be identified by their white shirts and tropical helmets on which will be painted the letters "MP." Directing traffic and passing out information will be the chief function of the police on this occasion.

Many Dignitaries
Many dignitaries in Legion circles are expected here in the course of the next few days, chief among these being G. Graham Huntington, national vice commander of the American Legion of Newark, N. J., who will serve as representative of National Commander John Stelle, and who will give the principal address of the convention at the banquet Saturday evening. Carl C. Matheny, Michigan department commander, and other members of his official staff will also be present during most of the convention.

Saturday Big Day
Saturday being the "big day" in Legion activities, the Chamber of Commerce is urging businessmen throughout the city to close—at least from 10 o'clock until noon—while the convention parade is on and Mayor William Berger is strengthening the sentiment with the issuance of a proclamation urging that the day be made a holiday wherever possible.

Downtown Cedar street, from Main to Oak will be cleared of cars throughout Saturday morning so that spectators will have an unobstructed view of the parade.

Another spectacle of unusual interest will be the band demonstration Saturday afternoon at the school stadium.

Wallace D. Wilson, of Escanaba, spent Sunday in Manistique, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Dee, on Arbutus avenue. Mr. Wilson was born and raised in Manistique and found much enjoyment in visiting scenes he knew as a boy, particularly scenes in Hiawatha township along M-94.

Mrs. William Storvik and daughter, Sharlene, and Mrs. Bernice Carling and daughter, Lois, of Chicago are visiting here with Mrs. Storvik's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Mickelson.

Mrs. E. U. Moberg of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Erickson and son, Donald, of St. Paul, were guests this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pallin, North Houghton avenue.

Cubs Play Gladstone Indians In Exhibition Game Tonight

TILT TO BE AT CITY DIAMOND

Ness Hints He May Have Surprise In Pitching Selection

The Escanaba Cubs will play the Gladstone Indians in an exhibition baseball game tonight at 6:15 o'clock at the City diamond.

The Cubs have defeated the Gladstone Redskins of the Rainbow league already this season and hope to shackle the other Gladstone club tonight in the exhibition game.

Manager Al Ness reported yesterday that his youngsters have shaken off the plague of fumblyitis with which they were afflicted last Sunday when they lost to Chatham.

The pitching assignments for tonight's game have not yet been announced and Manager Ness has hinted that he may come up with a surprise. The starting lineup also is somewhat in doubt, but it will probably be similar at least to the lineup used in recent weeks in Rainbow league games.

KINGSFORD TO LOSE CUMMINGS

High School Athletic Director Will Go To New London

Kingsford-Alvin "Dutch" Cummings, Kingsford high school athletic director for the past two years, has revealed that he has signed a contract as head football and basketball coach at New London, Wis., a class B high school with an enrollment of 620 students.

The former Kingsford mentor, a native of Crystal Falls, terminated his service at the Flivver school at the close of the spring term when it was announced that Vic Wojchowski, on leave of absence and serving in the Navy since 1942, would return to his former job.

At New London, Cummings will be athletic director with three assistants and will serve as head football and basketball coach and summer recreational director. For years, New London, which has a population of about 5,000 has been the athletic dorm for a strong prep conference including Shawano, Clintonville, Neenah, Menasha and Kaukauna.

The school has a lighted football field, a huge, modern gymnasium and a huge outdoor swimming pool which will be the center of summer recreation activities. Cummings, Kingsford's summer program director, will complete the job here and report to New London about Aug. 20.

Menominee Golfer Cards Record 73 In Detroit Links

Detroit, July 17 (AP)—Mary Agnes Wall of Menominee uncorked a brand of golf at the Detroit golf club today that established her as the one to beat for Michigan's Women's championship.

A neatly fashioned card of 73 strokes, the lowest competitive score ever posted by a woman in the state, gave Miss Wall an easy 7 to 5 quarterfinal victory over Margaret Russell of Detroit.

Miss Wall, the runnerup four years ago, shot a 37 on the outgoing nine, then after finishing off the match on the 13th green, played on out for an incoming 36. Her 73 was only two strokes over men's par. The 26-year-old Menominee golfer had eleven one-putt greens.

Favored to complete the bracket for Friday's finals was the tournament medalist, Sally Sessions of Muskegon, who shot a first-nine 39 and went on to take out another former champion, Mrs. Donald Weiss of Flint by a 4 and 2 count. Mrs. Weiss, winner of four state titles, was halted in her effort to equal the five-time championship record of Mrs. Harley G. Higbie of Detroit.

In tomorrow's 18-hole semifinals, Miss Wall will play Betty Courtwright of Ann Arbor, who occasioned little difficulty in advancing by a 3 and 1 count over Mrs. Sam Byrd of Detroit.

The other half of the bracket sends Miss Sessions against Mrs. H. W. Bretzloff of Detroit, who fashioned a 3 and 1 triumph over Mrs. Eddie Bush of Detroit.

The Sports Parade

By Ken Gunderman

It will require manpower to re-build the softball diamond at the lighted field Friday and Saturday and the softball association has issued a call for volunteers to assist. Each team is expected to provide at least one man to assist with the chore and any others, players or fans, who can spare some time either Friday or Saturday are invited to join the bee. When the job is finished, the diamond will be virtually rainproof, which means that there will be no necessity to postponed games except when it actually is raining buckets at game time.

When the official list of eligible teams for the district softball tournaments are announced, probably today, it will reveal the large

RANGERS PLAY HERE SUNDAY

Escanaba Bears To Face League Leaders At City Diamond

Riding a victory streak, the Escanaba Bears will face their greatest test of the season Sunday when they meet the Iron Mountain Rangers, leaders of the NWM league, in a baseball battle at the City diamond.

Heading the visiting contingent will be Bud Herman, hotshot pitching ace of the Rangers, acquired from Green Bay at the start of the season. Herman is not only one of the league's leading pitchers, but he currently also is far in front in the race for individual batting honors. He sports a batting average well over the .400 mark and includes several home runs in his batting achievements.

Manager Schwalbach will have both of his pitching stars, Jack Beck and Jim Fitzpatrick, ready for duty Sunday, but probably will not determine his selection until Saturday.

FIRST INNING NETS 8 RUNS

Two Boston Pitchers Are Kayoed As Bruins Tee Off

Chicago, July 17 (AP)—An eight-run first inning was all the Chicago Cubs and Pitcher Bob Chipman needed to gain a 10-0 win over the Boston Braves before a crowd of 10,614 persons in Wrigley Field here today.

Twelve Cubs batted in the first inning, kayoing both starter Johnny Sain and Ed Wright, his immediate relief, before anybody was out.

Three more Cubs raced across the plate after Southpaw Ernie White arrived to finally put out the fire. The Cubs scored again in the seventh on a walk, Billy Jurges' single and Chipman's fly. Phil Cavarretta hit his No. 6 home run in the eighth off St. Johnson, fourth Boston pitcher.

Chipman, a substitute starter for ailing Claude Passeau, allowed only six hits in gaining his No. 3 triumph.

PIRATES 8, GIANTS 5

Pittsburgh, July 17 (AP)—Lacing out a three-run homer and two singles, Ralph Kiner led the Pittsburgh Pirates to an 8-5 victory over the New York Giants today.

After the Pirates had knocked Starter Ken Trinkle from the hill in the first inning with a three-run blast, Kiner applied the crusher in the fourth by belting his 16th four-master of the year with two mates aboard off Reliever Red Kress.

Zale And Graziano Sian On Line For Middleweight Bout

New York, July 17 (AP)—The New York State athletic commission discovered today that Champion Tony Zale and Challenger Rocky Graziano are alive and breathing and stand a reasonable chance of remaining that way between now and their middleweight title fight in Yankee Stadium a week from tomorrow.

Going through the usual ritual on which the local fistic fathers insist before every title taffy-pull, the Gary, Ind., champ and the New York knocker-outer, then signed the customary commission contract form guaranteeing that both will show up for the festivities.

Inasmuch as Promoter Mike Jacobs informed them at the same time that the fight might lure as much as $500,000 into the cash registers for them to cut up, this precaution would seem to be somewhat unnecessary.

Commission Doctor William Walker pronounced the swatters "quite sharp for this much in advance of the fight."

RALLY TOO LATE

St. Louis, July 17 (AP)—The home-run bats of Ron Northey and Andy Seminick temporarily halted the St. Louis Cardinals' drive toward the National League lead tonight as the Philadelphia Phils took the opener of a three-game series 10 to 7 despite a four-run Cardinal ninth inning rally.

Northey walloped his 11th four-master of the season in the opening inning with one on as Card Starter Ken Burkhardt was driven from the hill, and hit another off Ted Wilks in the fifth. Seminick's came with the bases loaded off Howard Krist in the five-run seventh.

Oscar Judd's left arm had the Redbirds caged 'til the eighth and even the two runs scored that frame looked small, but when Stan Musial singled with the bases loaded in the ninth, Charlie Schanz was called in to relieve. He started well, forcing whitey Kuroski to bounce into a double play but then Enos Slaughter singled home a run and Marty Marion's one-baser drove in another so Dick Mulligan was brought in to retire Pinch-batter Harry Walker and end the threat. ### REDS DRAW 28.05

Cincinnati, July 17 (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds exploded for four runs in the eighth inning tonight to defeat the Brooklyn Dodgers 5-2 before 28,050 paying fans, the largest Crosley Field night gathering of the season. The victory gave Veteran Bucky Walters his sixth win of the season against two defeats.

Three Homers Help All-Stars Defeat Indianapolis, 4-2

Indianapolis, July 17 (AP)—With Jerry Witte of Toledo clouting three home runs over the left field wall, the American Association All-Stars beat the Indianapolis Indians tonight, 4 to 2, in the eleventh renewal of the loop's ganging up on its July Fourth leader.

A crowd of 10,318, far short of the record but a lam in Victory Field, saw the slugging All-Stars outthit the Indians, nine safeties to five.

Manager Nick Culp of the Stars used five pitchers, with Harry Taylor of St. Paul's Saints, now tied with Indianapolis for the league lead, getting credit for the victory. Glen Fletcher, first of three Tribesmen on the mound, was charged with the loss.

Witte's initial homer, in the fourth inning, came with the bags empty and was the game's first counter. Eddie Bockman of Kansas City walked. Babe Barna of Minneapolis singled and Fred Walters of Louisville singled to score Bockman. Fletcher walked Frank Shofner of Louisville to fill the bags and went to the showers in favor of Pinky Woods, who struck out Taylor and forced Eddie Basinski to pop up.

Jeep Is Ambushed On Trieste Road, American Killed

Trieste, July 17 (AP)—A widespread day-long search of the Gorizia-Trieste highway area by U. S. 88th division patrols and investigating squads failed tonight to produce a single clue to the identity of the person who ambushed an American army jeep, killing one American soldier and injuring two others. Their names were not disclosed.

Maj. Gen. Bryant E. Moore, commanding the division, described the murder—committed last midnight—as a "treacherous and cowardly act" and said that it might lead to closing the road at night to all except military traffic.

As soon as word of the murder reached division headquarters heavily armed patrols were scattered through the area searching fields and hillsides and halting all passing traffic in quest of weapons. The patrols included several tanks.

American military government officials had other trouble in Trieste. "Locked Out" workers at shipyards in the Trieste area gathered in demonstrative crowds at docksides today as military government authorities strived to end a new work stoppage ordered by management heads yesterday.

CERTIFIED SPUD CHECK PLANNED

Field Inspections Will Be Made In County Next Week

The first round of field inspections of certified potato fields in Delta county will be made this coming week by Herb Reiley, inspector, and E. A. Wenner, county agricultural agent, it was announced yesterday from the office of the agent.

Delta county, one of the leading counties in the state in the production of certified potato seed, this year has 43 certified growers, the largest number in the history of the certified potato program. The growth has been encouraged by the Potato Boosters association, which annually offers cash awards and other honors to outstanding certified and tablestock producers.

In a letter addressed to the certified growers, Wenner has advised them of the approximate time the inspector will visit the fields. The growers are expected to have rounded out all diseased plants and removed them from the field before the first inspection.

Following is the scheduled of

Warn Roadside Garbage Dumpers

Local residents who have a habit of discarding their old shoes, spoiled vegetables and empty bottles along the highways in Delta county yesterday were warned by Sheriff William E. Miron that unless they change their habits they will be arrested and prosecuted.

The sheriff's office reported that complaints have been received concerning this ugly practice and that efforts will be made to apprehend the garbage dumpers.

Roadsides along M-35 and other trunklines were reported to be blossoming with unwanted heaps of rubbish.

State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler recently made a state-wide appeal to the public to refrain from disfiguring trunkline roadsides in this way, and asked cooperation in keeping highways beautiful.

Persons interested in the tourist business, and others just interested in roadside neatness have signified their willingness to cooperate by reporting car license numbers of such offenders to law enforcement officers.
